

STEAM Camp for Girls

Terms and Conditions

Tech-G is a non-boarding camp program that is designed to serve female Campers, who wish to attend our camps on a day-only basis. This program runs over the weekend starting at 9.00am and ending 4:00pm, and includes seminars, workshops, a competition and career advice at the end of the camp.

Campers joining should be well hydrated and organize snacks to sustain themselves throughout the sessions. Light refreshments will be provided during the day on site.

Classes and workshops

Each workshop duration varies between 90 minutes to three hours each; our instructors will be engaging with the campers to work on a particular area of STEAM, introducing them to a new skill and helping them to understand the potentials of particular areas. The workshops are structured to assist the campers discover specific areas of STEAM education, expand their interests, general knowledge and potential careers in the future. Campers have to attend all sessions in order to receive a Certificate of Completion.

All instructors of the workshops specialize in their respective areas in STEAM and are either peer-tutors, graduates of University of Wollongong in Dubai Computer Science and Engineering degrees, faculty members and/or experts from the industry.
